What You Need to Know : Licensing Your Dog in the State of Maine

Frequently Asked Questions about dog licensing

What is the cost to license my dog?

For an “altered” or “fixed” dog the cost is $6.00. For a dog that is not “altered” the cost is $11.00. There is an additional cost of $1.00 to license your dog on-line.

What should I do if my dog loses its tag and it's not time to renew the license?

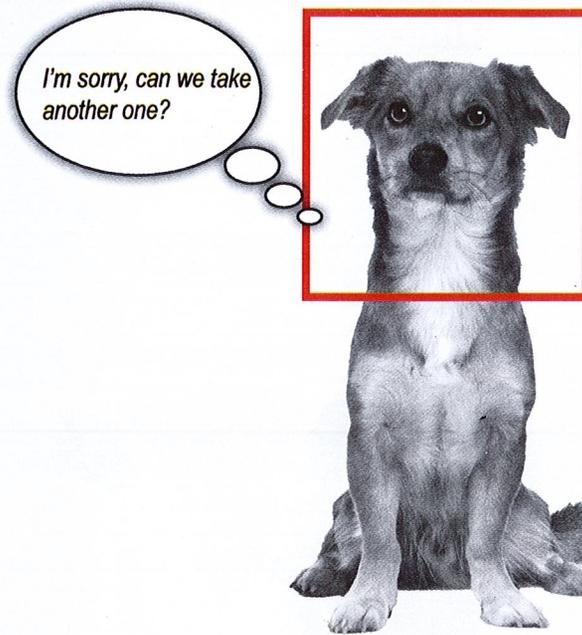

You will need to obtain a new tag from your town office or city hall.

What if I need a special license?

If you are licensing a wolf hybrid, service/search or rescue dog or need to obtain a kennel license, please contact your local municipal office.

Can a dog run “at large” in the State of Maine?

It is unlawful for any dog to run at large except when it is used for hunting. “At large” means off the premises of the owner and not under the control of any person.

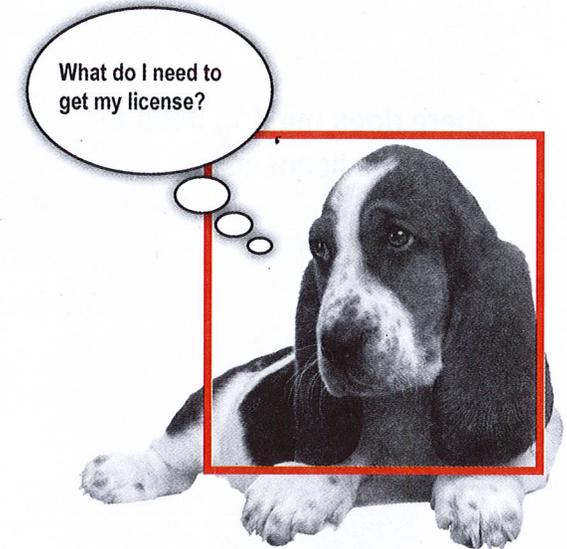

What does my dog license pay for?

When you license your dog you help support the following:

-  Local Animal Control Officers and District Humane Agents
-  The investigation of animal cruelty complaints and enforcement of animal welfare laws
-  Compliance with rabies vaccinations for dogs
-  Care for sick and stray animals
-  The return of lost dogs to their owners

Did you know you might be able to license your dog on-line?

Just go to www10.informe.org/dog_license/index_on.shtml to find out if your town or city participates in this on-line program.

What you will need to license your dog:

-  Credit Card (on-line)
-  Current Rabies certificate
-  Veterinarian's name and phone number
-  Spay or Neuter Certificate (if your dog has been “fixed”)
